NB: - With regard to Sl. No. 1 to 82, time limit is three years for Extant Notified Variety and Extant Variety about which there is Common Knowledge from the date of notification of crop species under Section 29(2) of PPV&FR Act, 2001 and five years for farmers varieties from the date of notification of crop species. By virtue of suo motu order dated 11.02.2011 published in PVJ March, 2011, the time limit for registration of extant varieties about which there is common knowledge and farmers' variety has been extended for a further period of three years and five years respectively from 30th June, 2009. With regard to Sl. No.83 to 132, and with effect from 16.06.2015 by virtue of amended Rule 22(2) of PPV&FR Rules, 2003, the Authority has to fix the time limit for registration of extant varieties. The Authority extended the time limit for registration of ENV and VCK by six years from the date of publication of its approval in PVJ and for farmers' variety by ten years from the date of publication of its approval in PVJ.
